

THE CLASS OF '31

"....First the infant, mewling...."

OFFICERS

ELMER T. HOLIN	President
CLARENCE M. OLSON	Vice-President
ALBERT L. MELL	Secretary
HAROLD B. WEIS	Treasurer
JOHN H. BOWMAN	Sergeant-at-Arms

ELMER T. HOLIN

De Harmor Hinstitoot (nutt: Dees is honhuffed witt de mitt bizness)
Dere Mamma:

I'm riding to hinform you wot it's going hon in de skool nowadays. I hurrified hon Saptemper 19, und de foist ting I'm doing is choining a parate wot its beginning in de Dinamo Lab. und going to de Dinn's Huffice, und denn it's hending in de Libary. Hmm—sotch a slow parate, I'm tinking wot somepoddy dite. So being wot wir grinhorns, de Perfessers in de Libary is giffing us de routes to de werrios classes. Hmm—de prizes wot dere chodging for de use of de clessrooms. Is something hufful. You'll tink wot we wished to slip dere de hull night, too. Ach, mine woister henimiz shouldn't hev it.

Hon de seccund day wir heving a messmitting wot wir hearing hall sorts frum spitches frum de Prasident, witt de Dinn, witt anudder Dinn, witt de Libarian. De Libarian tinks wot wir coming to skool to spend our spare time in de Libary, so she's giving us a list of rulls of behafior. Wir hall liking de Dinns, who are telling us dey want to be hour friends. At foist wir hall tinking wot a nize man de Prasident is, due to de fect wot he's relating wot wir de bast and hendsomest cless wot's coming to diss hestbleeshmant. Bot hall frum a sudden wir bicomming aware of de fect wot he's streenging diss same line to hall de grinhorns itch year. Hmm—were we spitchless witt henger witt rage tho. So de hull huffice is gatting pale und to calm us, dere heving anudder hussembly, so de Dinn is telling us sicrits aboud de Faternitiz. It

An architectural Bacchanalia. This scene in Grant Park shows a group of picked Freshmen coryphees posing as "The Spirit of Terry Druggan". We must apologize for the Frosh in the lower right.

