

THE DANCE OF LIFE. A swirl of laughing couples, and the quick shuffle of hundreds of dancing feet, marks the opening of the Junior Informal. The presence of the photographer interrupts the current of the dance for a moment and, worse luck, catches Van in a characteristic Vandaveerinian attitude. The Sophomore fling at social eminence was staged at the Morrison and a panoramic view was necessary to appreciate the cosmopolitan crowd.