

WHITE HATS. With laudable regard for their alma mater, but under the stern eye of the upper-classmen, the Freshmen architects form the three significant symbols in Grant Park. Raw meat from a greenhorn's calf must satisfy the aesthetic appetite of these pencil pushers until the banquet in the evening terminates their hunger. A group of firm but gentle coercers, taking it all in.