

NEWS. In more ways than one. The four horsemen of the Armour News seem to take life rather easy. And then that little affair on North Clark Street—these are the first authentic and accurate pictures ever shown. The process of lining them up and mowing them down is pictured here.