SOPHOMORE INFORMAL

Long in the memories of the class of '32 will the date of Friday, February 28th, linger, for that was the date of the third dance of the year, the Sophomore Informal.

What a dance! What a night! Social Chairman Bryant and his committee had secured Erl Brammel and his Kentucky Colonels, masters of jazz and syncopation, who made merry in a way all their own and satisfied every desire for a wonderful evening.

And where, you ask, did all this happen? You guessed right, my friend, for where except in the beautiful Gold Room of the Congress Hotel could such an evening be spent?

A most enjoyable and unusual feature was the spaciousness of the ballroom and the abundance of parking space between dances. The programs were unique and worthy souvenirs of such a dance.
