

In the first dual meet of the year Chicago Normal was easily turned back 45-32. The mile event proved to be an upset when Richter, a freshman, led the field from start to finish winning over more experienced men. Captain Kara chalked up another first for Armour in the high hurdles. Sturm copped a third in the fifty, Fox and Doubt took a first and third in the 440. Armour made a slam in the shot put with Yount taking first place. In the half-mile race, Iverson and Podlizec placed first and second. Yount took third in the pole vault, and Henry Fox and Kara tied for third in the high jump. Armour copped the relay with Harold Fox, Yount, Sturm, and Ransel running in the order named.

On March 21st Armour placed third in a quadrangular meet with Chicago Normal, Morton, and Crane. Crane College entered at the last minute turning the affair from a triangular to quadrangular meet. Crane came first with 57, Chicago Normal second with 46, Armour scored 32, and Morton $18\frac{3}{4}$. Coach Stagg was not interested in winning the meet as he sought to save his more valuable men for the C. A. A. U. meet the following day. Don Paul won the shot put with Yount placing second. Smith headed the mile runners while Harold Fox copped the 440-yard dash. Richter, Iverson, and Henry Fox finished third in their events. Sturm placed fourth in 220-yard, and 50-yard dashes.

At the 31st Annual C. A. A. U. meet at the Broadway Armory on March 22nd, Armour tied for fourth place with 5 points. Fifteen teams competed in the track and field events. Failure to bank the turns interfered greatly with the marks made

