

Another "sure" game was lost in the final minute of play when "Y" College quintet turned back the Armour boys 31-28.

Fighting mad, the boys came back in the next game against Augustana and fought from the starting gun to the final whistle. Although they lost, 27-21, it was to a stronger, bigger, faster team, that was extended to the limit to win.

The next two games against Michigan State Teachers and St. Mary's were played on a week-end trip to Michigan. A powerful quintet from St. Mary's defeated them 42-27. Again sinking into a listless game the boys were beaten by Michigan State Teachers, 35-20.

Captain Simpson proved to be an able leader and was instrumental in keeping the team in a fighting mood. Simpson's uncanny ability at sinking free throws won him high scoring honors for the year. Rutkowski at back guard was easily the star of the team. He was a mountain on defense and could always be depended upon to play a bang up game. Miran at floor guard played an erratic game. Easily the fastest man on the team, he should have been high point man, but his inability to work under the basket robbed him of many points. Rowley, who warmed the bench early in the season, showed his true ability when Miran was out because of sickness. Robin and Rossing were the two "dead eyes" of the team. Rossing's specialty was follow shots while Robin could sink them from anywhere any time. Ott was a consistent scorer at forward but a bit light in weight for a

ROSSING

SANDSTEDT

ARENDS