

college team. His dribbling and ability to sink "longs" could be placed on a par with any one. Tell played at center alternating with Robin and Rossing. He played a defensive game that is hard to match.

Coach Krafft, working under difficulties beyond his control, turned out a team that played good basketball in spite of adverse conditions.

The final tilt of the season, a return game with the Michigan Teachers, was lost, 26-31.
