

TOP ROW—BUEHLING, FILMER, FETTERMAN, TRZYNA, VAN OSDOL, BREH, WILLIAMSON, STEIN, MECK, JOHNSON, DAVIDSON, HAMLIN, SCHOHL, BONVALLET, WESTON.
 FOURTH ROW—OLSON, FOX, HUGHES, MYERS, MURPHY, SCHRADER, KREIBICH, LUKEY, BLAHNA, PASCHKE, STRANBERG, RASMUSSEN, KORRELL.
 THIRD ROW—MORTENSON, KELLNER, SERSON, ABENDROTH, WAHLSTRAND, SANDSTROM, HALLEN, RICHTER, STOCKLIN, SCHINKE, SHERK, RAHMEL, DRIGOT, O'CONNOR, PEARSON, ALLEN, WEGNER, WARNER, SQUIRES, MATHESON, MICCUCIO, DRAUS, MOSKOVITZ, PENFOLD.
 SECOND ROW—RUDELIUS, PAPANTONY, WILKE, IVINO, TENNYSON, MILEVSKY, FRYE, ZIMMERMAN, FAGEN, MINNICK, SOUTHWICK, ESCOTT, MCGILL, NEBEL, JOST, CARLSON, GROSSER, ABRAMSON, PAMLER, NEWMAN.
 BOTTOM ROW—DOLLENMAIER DYLEWSKI, BAKER, BIGELOW, MCINERNEY, NEBEL, STIER, BOGOWICZ, HANKE, FILMER, GANZER, JANISZEWSKI, TAYLOR, DICKEY, ROFFEE, STEHNO, ASMUS, MARANDO, KNOCKE.

"Chicago Civic Opera Stage Lighting Control," was the topic of K. R. Ross's lecture on January 10. The speaker from the General Electric Company described the Selsyn-Thyratron lighting control system with illustrations.

The Educational Director of the Central Station Institute of the Commonwealth Edison Company, Mr. Maiers, gave an illustrated lecture on "Know Illinois."

John H. Bell, telegraph engineer of the Bell Telephone Laboratories, spoke on "Modern Telegraphy—A New Art With An Old Name."

In December, the Great Lakes District of the A.I.E.E. held its convention at the Drake Hotel, affording the "electricals" a three day vacation from school. The time was spent in attending technical sessions, inspection trips and a dinner-dance.

The Spring Smoker, which was held in March at the Theta Xi House, climaxed the year's activities of the Branch.

