piled up the amazing total of nineteen strikeouts. Tech scored its solitary run in the fifth inning, with Lake Forest immediately k notting the score in the sixth. No further hits were allowed by Simpson in the remaining seven innings.

Armour had three men on base in the tenth inning but failed in its scoring attempt when Robin struck out to retire the side.

The inning was opened with a single by Mago. He then stole second and third base, while Link flied out to right field. Reichle walked. Miran came to bat next, hitting to the third baseman who in turn threw the ball to the catcher when Mago attempted to score. Hauser followed Miran with a base on balls, filling the bases, but Robin struck out to end the inning.

Tech men defeated Y.M.C.A. College, May 17, in a slugging contest; the score was 15-3. Armour gathered twenty hits while "Y" was content with eight. Stehno pitched effectively for seven innings when he was relieved by Cannell. "Y" College has not defeated Armour in six years of baseball competition.

Victory number eight of the 1930 season was chalked up when DeKalb Teachers' College nine, at DeKalb, was defeated 5-3. Simpson pitched a
