record of his collegiate career. Moskowitz and Link starred for Tech in hitting, the former knocking out a triple and two singles, while the latter hit a double and a single in four times at bat.

Armour's eleventh baseball victory of the season was won at the expense of De Kalb by a score of 15 to 6. The game was played on Ogden Field on Tuesday, May 26, and was the second defeat of De Kalb. Free hitting was indulged in by both teams, although De Kalb did not score after the fourth inning. Armour, on the contrary, collected most of its runs in the last few innings, thirteen runs being recorded in that stage of the game.

Lake Forest defeated Armour 6 to 3, in the last game of the season, played May 28 on the local grounds. Although Armour out-hit their opponents 15 to 10, they failed to hit in the crises.

The season ended with eleven wins and three losses on the books, a record only a strong team can show. The boys practiced after school several nights a week in order to develop their ability and skill to the utmost.
