

Advertising is business first, literature and art second; but always the sum total of all three.