

■
a territory may eternally remain such, or it may in time become independent. in the same manner an "extra" may never rise above his insignificant position, but, if worthy, will inevitably come forth. a freshman, through diligent effort and application, has the opportunity of advancing through the various stages to the bright limelight.