

Charles W. Leigh Coach
 David W. Pearson Captain
 Walter M. Trauten, Jr. Manager

ber of the team as did the rotund Richards. Trauten, as manager, rendered valuable services, and Staib, his successor, expects to carry on in the same efficient manner.

GOLF SCHEDULE, 1932

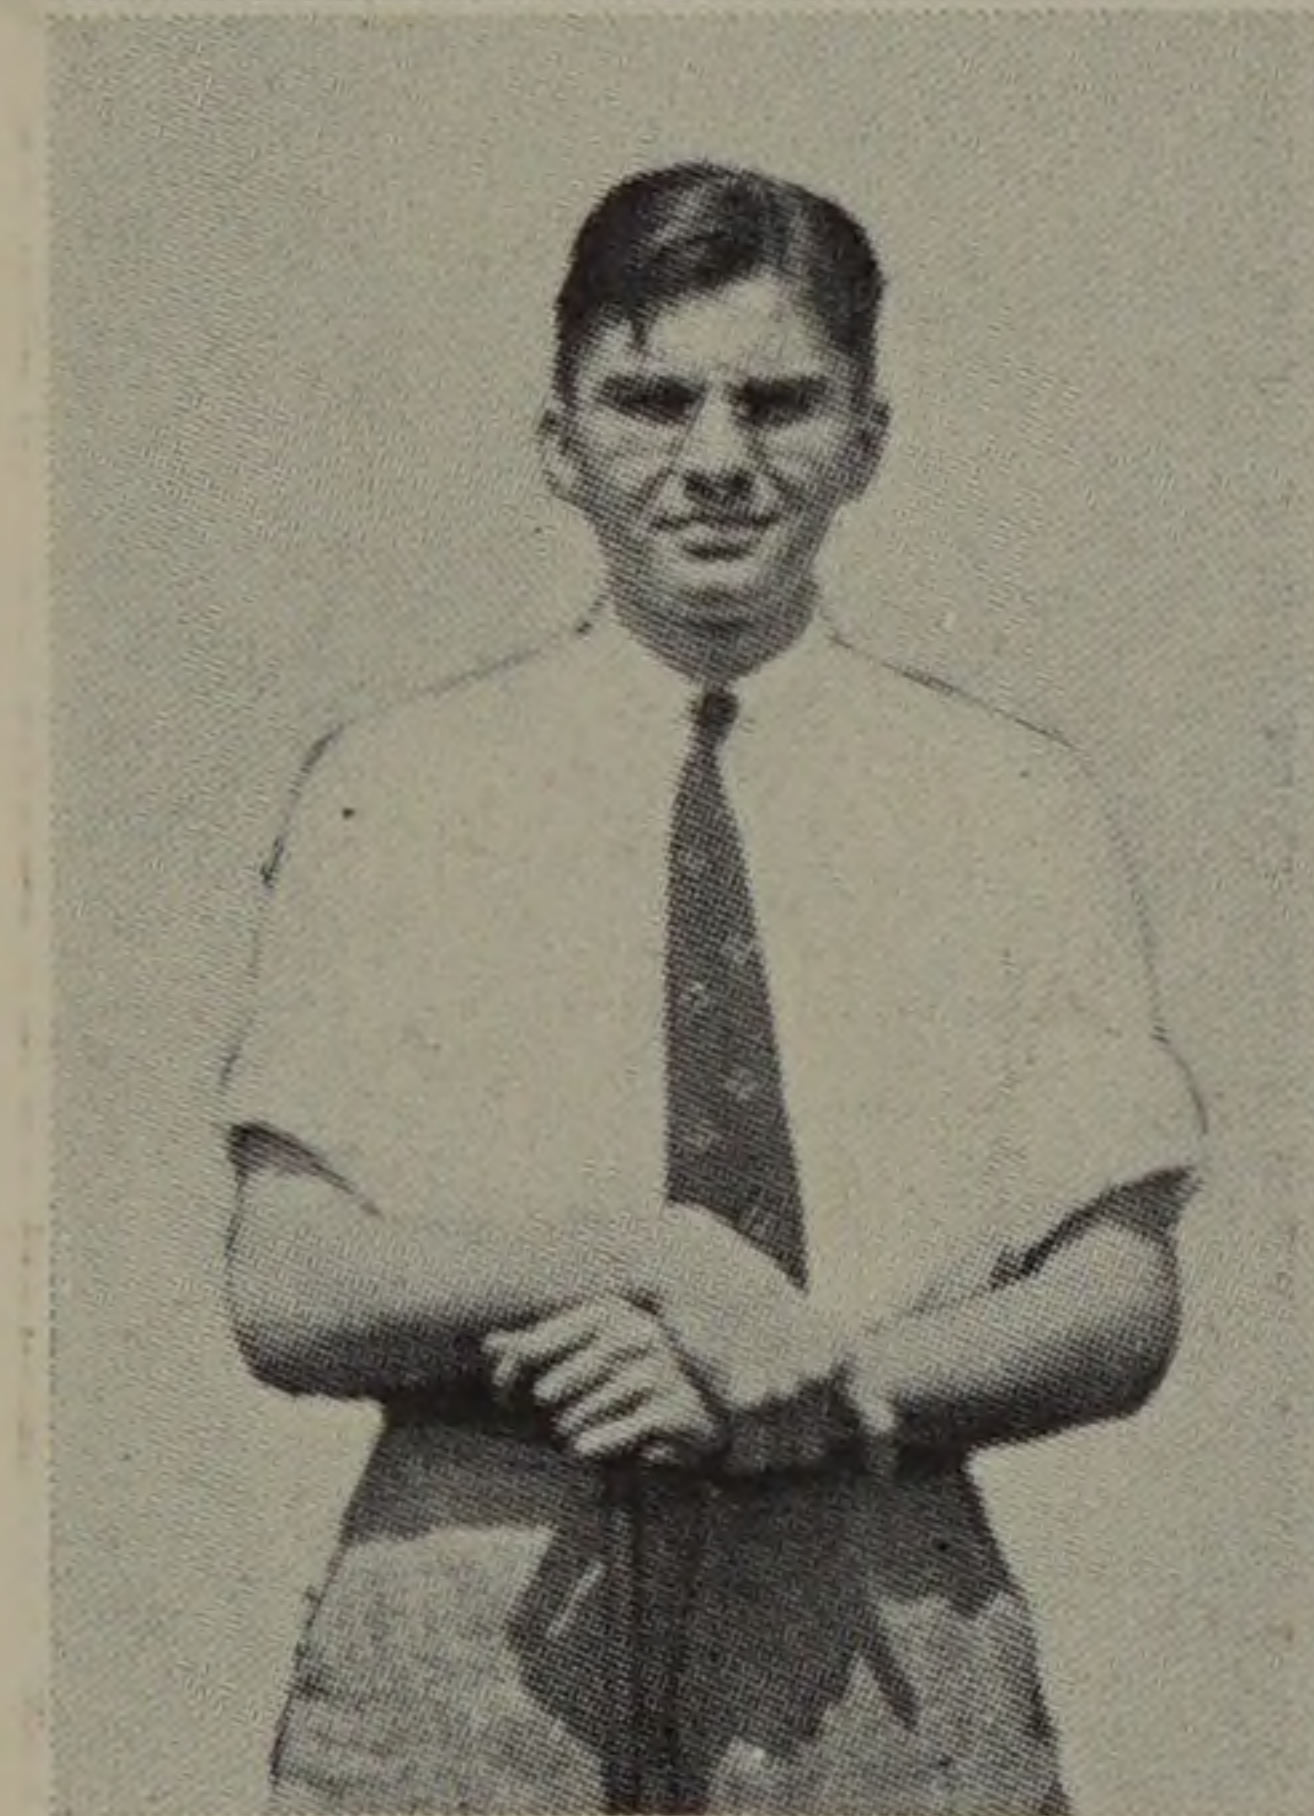

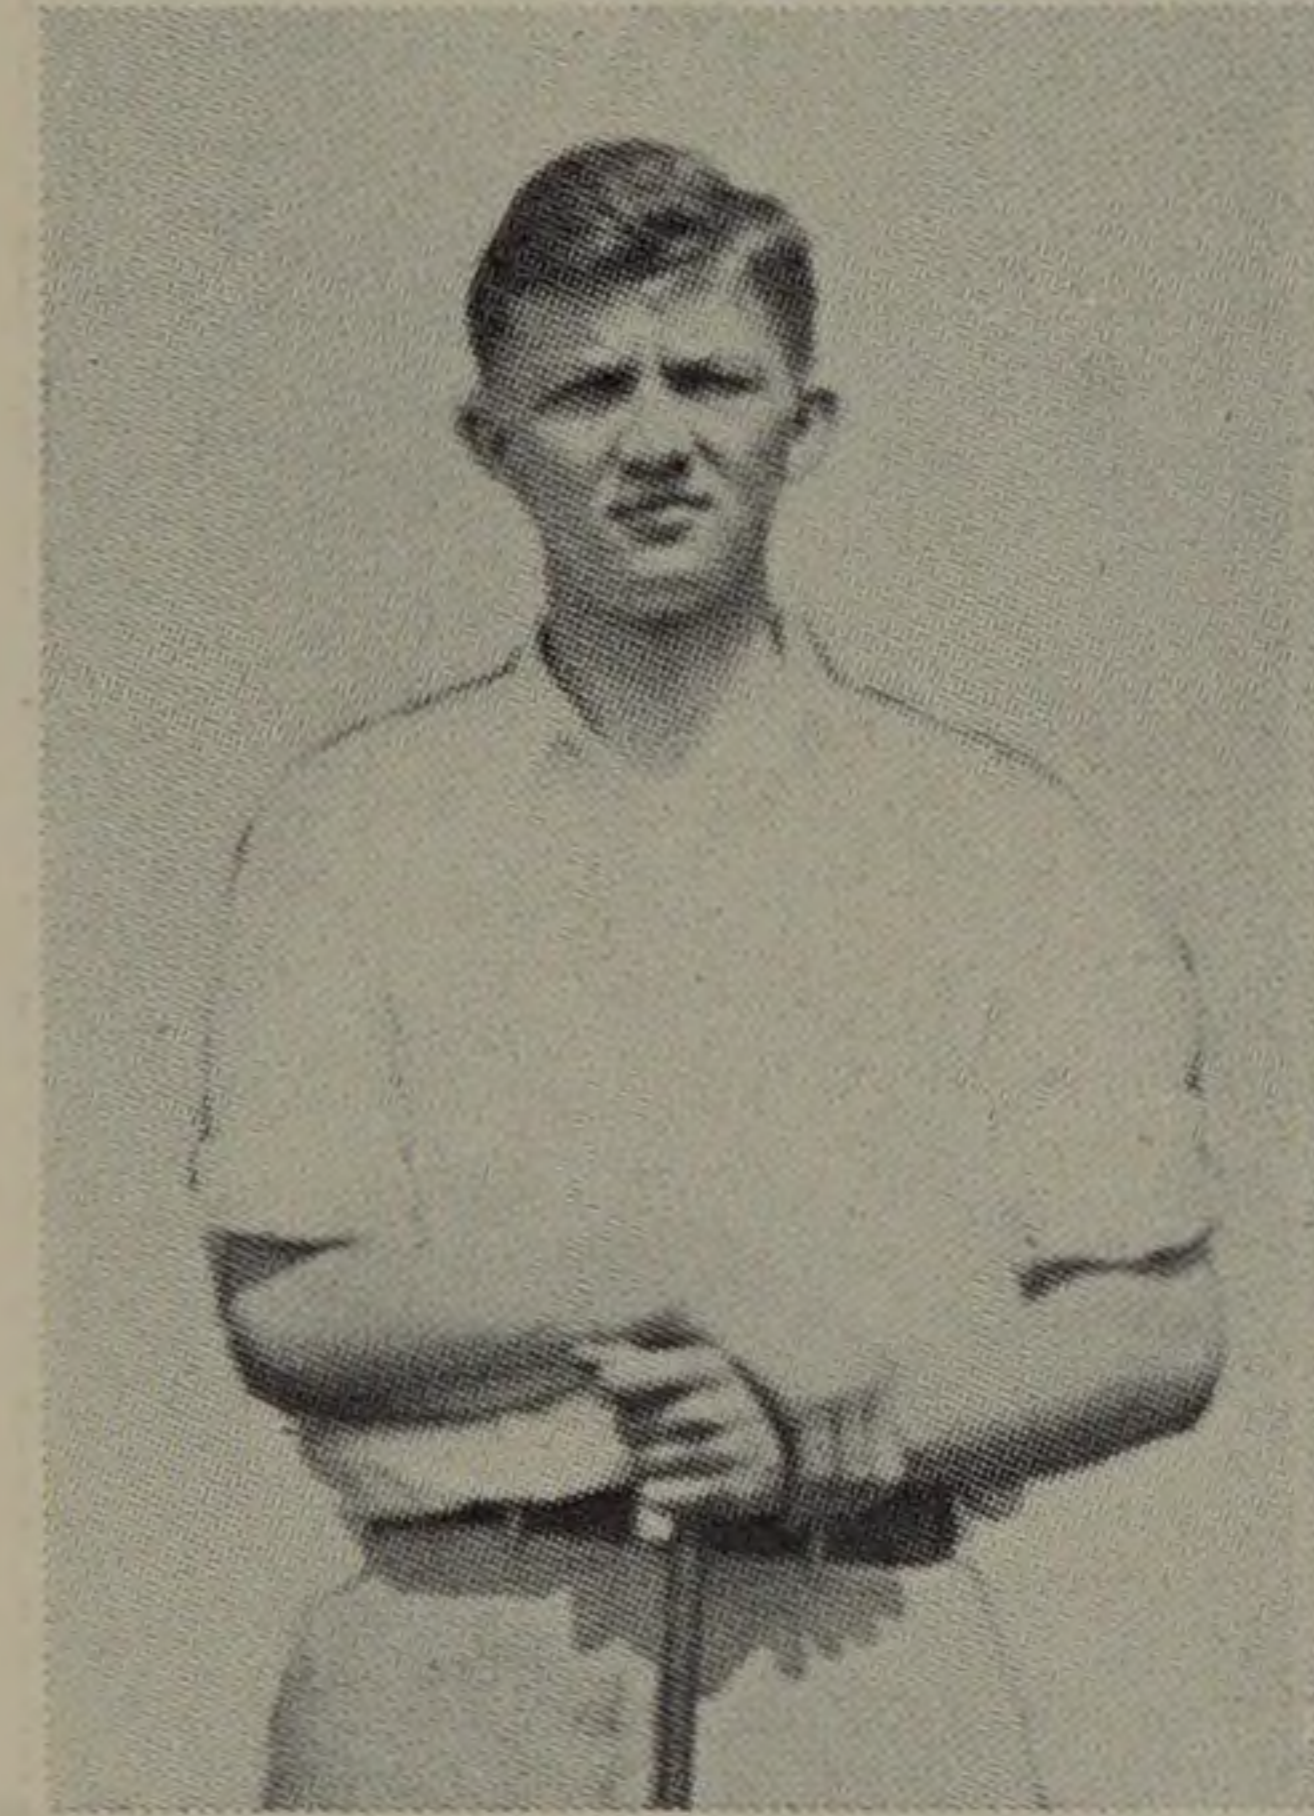

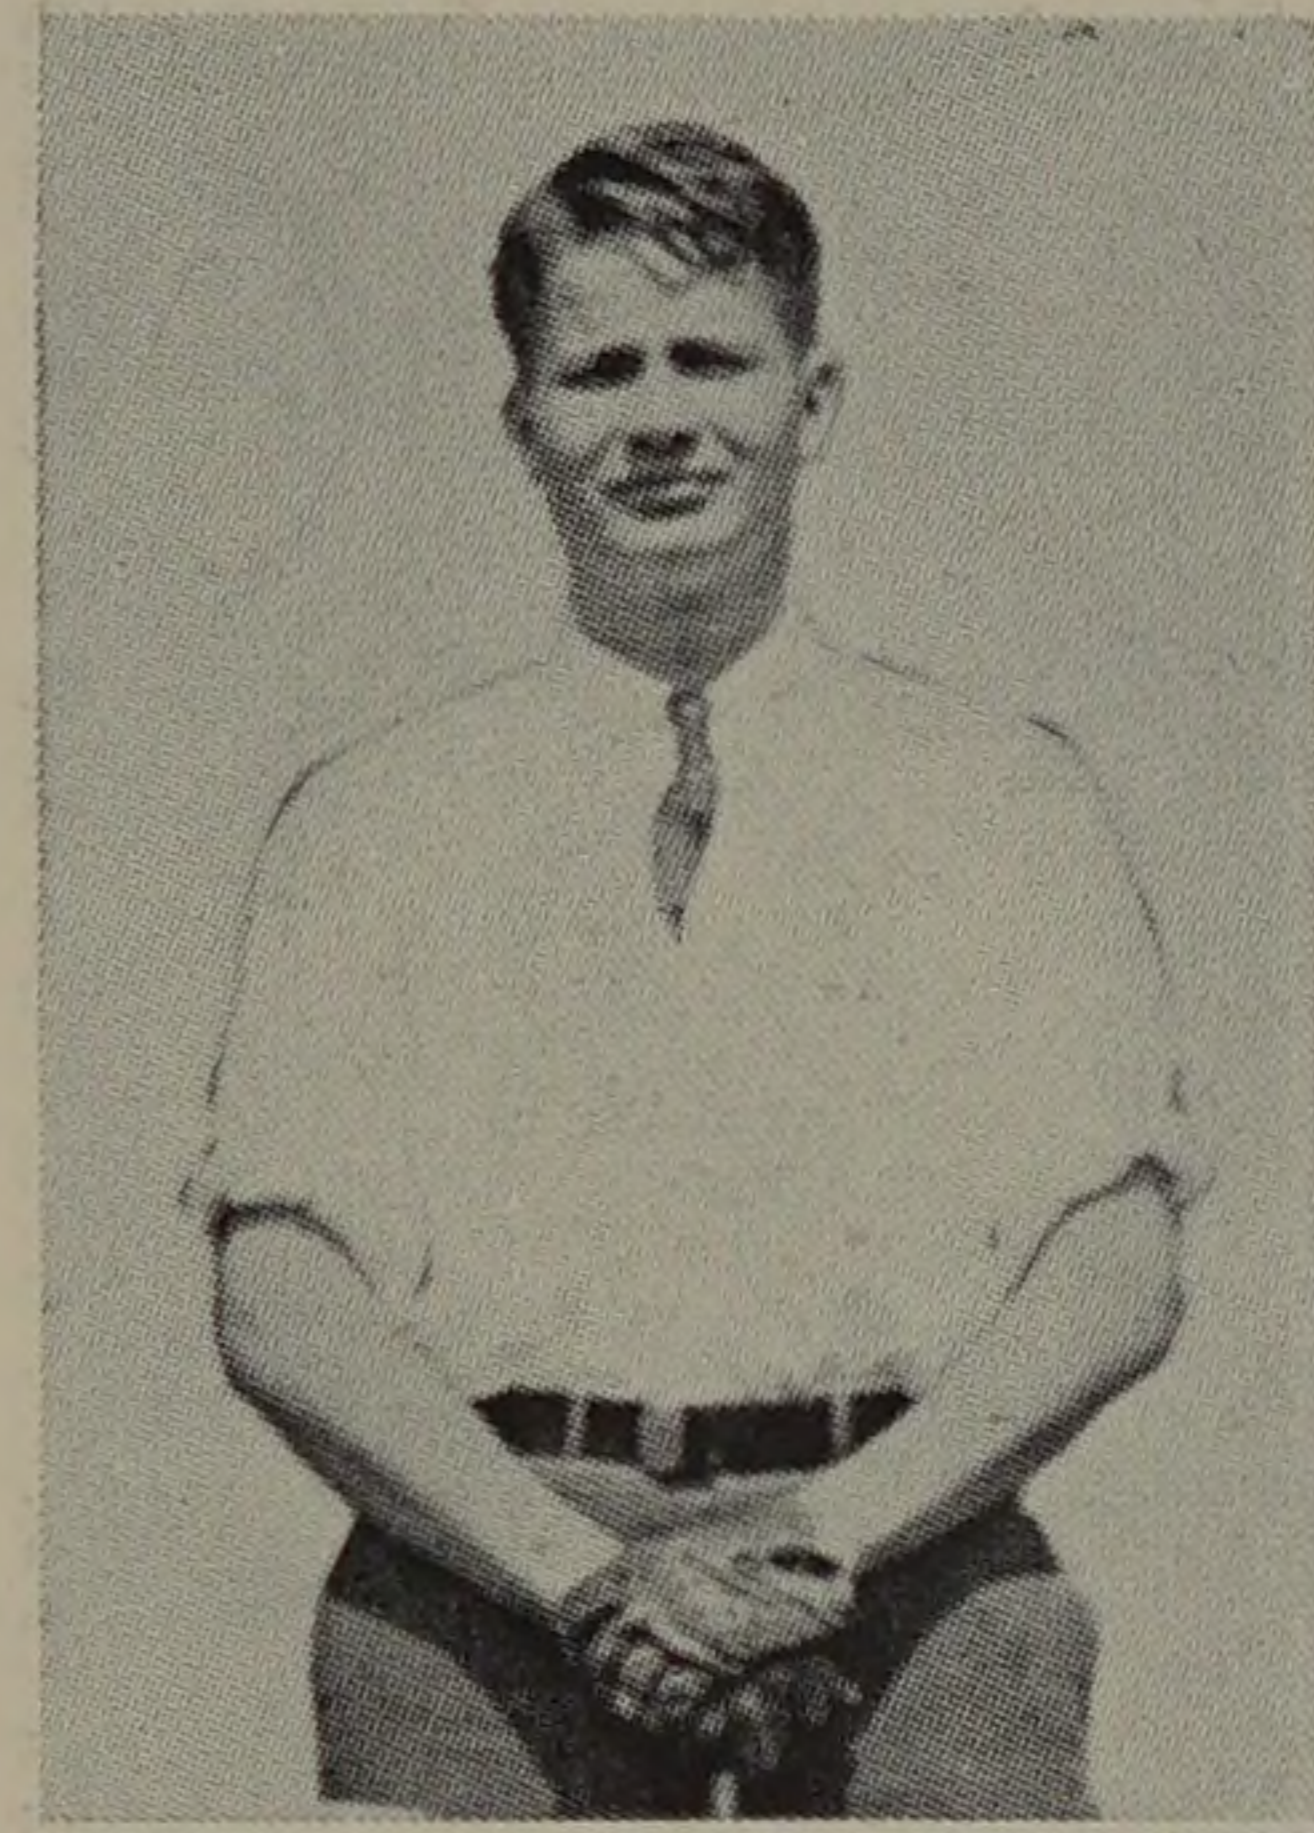

April 9—School Tournament
 April 16—Armour 13½, Alumni 4½, at Evergreen Park
 April 22—Armour 1½, Valparaiso 16½, at Valparaiso
 April 27—Armour 15, Crane 3, at Evergreen Park
 May 5—Armour 7½, Loyola 10½, at Evergreen Park
 May 13—Armour 11, Toledo 7, at Evergreen Park
 May 18—Armour 10, Valparaiso 8, at Evergreen Park
 May 20—Armour 9, Crane 3, at Wheaton
 May 28—Armour 1½, Toledo 16½, at Toledo

SUMMARY

Matches won 5 Matches lost 3

Davidson sinks one

SVEN JOHANNISSON

Sven, a veteran of two seasons, was one of the high scorers of the Tech golfers. For his excellent showing on the course he was elected to lead the Tech golfers in 1933.

WALTER J. WELDON

Weldon, a veteran player on the Armour team, shot an excellent game of golf during the season. The doubles combination of Weldon and Johannisson was almost unbeatable.

LAWRENCE W. DAVIDSON

Davidson was easily the outstanding star of the Tech aggregation. This brilliant newcomer shot consistently in the seventies throughout the season.

