

■
through the majestic water gates of the electrical group will enter many visitors to its exhibits, and through the portals held open by our ever helpful engineering societies will many of us pass to success in our chosen professions.