

■
sounds in imitation of nature are believed to have been the first music. its simplest expression is in song; its deepest the symphony. musical appreciation is universal among nations and men for "a man without music is without soul."