

CHI EPSILON

HONORARY CIVIL

*Founded at University of Illinois in 1922
Eleven Active Chapters*

ARMOUR CHAPTER

Established 1923

*Pledge
Ribbon
Purple and White*

HONORARY MEMBERS

Herbert Enszt Assistant Professor of Civil Engineering
Eldon C. Grafton Assistant Professor of Structural Engineering

FACULTY MEMBERS

Melville B. Wells Professor of Civil Engineering
John C. Penn Professor of Civil Engineering
Roe L. Stevens Associate Professor of Bridge and Structural Engineering
Philip C. Huntley Associate Professor of Experimental Engineering
Henry T. Heald Associate Professor of Civil Engineering

Founded at the University of Illinois in 1922, Chi Epsilon, honorary civil engineering fraternity, granted a charter to the Armour chapter, March 9, 1923. It was founded to provide an incentive for greater achievement in the civil engineering profession, and to distinguish the undergraduates who have shown a high scholastic ability.

