

GEORGE HAGENAUER

George played on the second team for the second year in a row. He improved steadily and should be able to break through next year. His weakness seems to be slowness of foot and in lack of experience. Another year should find him ready for big things.

ROBERT MERZ

Bob Merz, another freshman and Heike's bosom pal, was one of the tallest men on the team. He did not play regularly but gained some needed experience by getting into nearly every game. He should make a lot of points in his next three years.

ing though only a Freshman, Christoph, Dollenmaier, Warner, and Merz. They should form a fine nucleus for another good team.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE 1933-1934

- December 6—Armour 50, George Williams 35, at Armour.
 December 9—Armour 27, University of Chicago 22, at Chicago.
 December 13—Armour 26, North Central 32, at Naperville.
 December 19—Armour 30, Alumni 29, at Armour.
 December 20—Armour 43, Chicago Normal 28, at Armour.
 January 5—Armour 24, North Central 40, at Armour.
 January 9—Armour 35, DePaul 43, at DePaul.
 January 13—Armour 29, Augustana 43, at Rock Island.
 January 18—Armour 40, Wheaton 44, at Wheaton.
 January 20—Armour 39, George Williams 34, at George Williams.
 January 26—Armour 35, Michigan State Normal 31, at Armour.
 February 3—Armour 31, Wayne University 33, at Detroit.
 February 5—Armour 23, Michigan State Normal 32, at Ypsilanti.
 February 8—Armour 44, Wheaton 32, at Armour.
 February 15—Armour 36, Wayne University 15, at Armour.
 February 21—Armour 41, DePaul 43, at Armour.
 February 23—Armour 41, Augustana 31, at Armour.

SUMMARY

Won—9
 Lost—8

Armour—594 points
 Opponents—567 points

Doane and Two of the Substitutes

