

EDWARD McDONOUGH

McDonough, a junior, played his second year on the team and had a very good year. He teamed with Paine to form a winning doubles team and also showed fine form in his singles matches.

ROBERT ESBENSEN

Bob Esbensen, although playing his first season for Armour, made a very creditable showing. He played in a few matches and gained some valuable experience in court playing. He will be a great aid to next year's team.

LOWELL J. LAMMERS

Lowell Lammers, another man who was playing his first season for Armour, won every match that he was in competition. He has transferred from Massachusetts Institute of Technology and should be playing regularly next season.

Paine. The Armour Netmen lost a hard fought battle to Chicago on May 4th, by a score of 6 to 3. Armsbury, Lammers, and Esbensen won their matches. May 10th, Armour defeated DePaul by a score of 3 to 2 and followed the victory with a hard fought battle to a tie with Wheaton on May 17th.

The netmen then continued to chalk up victories for the remaining part of the season, meeting defeat only once and that to Wheaton. They beat the Y-College twice by scores of 5 to 2 and 5 to 1 to close the season.

The season of 1934 should be as good or better than the 1933 season as only two men were lost by graduation and there is a long list of good prospects to fill these vacancies.

TENNIS SCHEDULE

April 24—Armour 3, Northwestern 6, at Northwestern.
 April 27—Armour 7, Loyola 2, at Loyola
 May 4—Armour 3, Chicago 6, at Chicago
 May 10—Armour 3, De Paul 2, at DePaul
 May 16—Armour 5, Y-College 2, at Armour
 May 17—Armour 3, Wheaton 3, at Armour
 May 22—Armour 5, Y-College 1, at Y-College
 May 24—Armour 2, Wheaton 4, at Wheaton

SUMMARY

Won—4                      Lost—3                      Tied—1

*Cone,
McDonough,
and Streb
In Singles
Play*

