

JUNIOR WEEK

Following the softball tournament finals was the Interfraternity Relay which was won by the well balanced team entered by Phi Pi Phi. The Juniors, represented by Fleig, Concolino, Neal, and Tuma, presented a relay team which was good enough to take top honors in the Interclass Relay event.

The Faculty-Senior Baseball game gained the interest of the entire student body. Though claimed by some to be a farce, it proved the superiority of the Faculty over the Seniors on the diamond as well as in the class room. The game was featured by the stellar pitching of Sammy Bibb and the long distance hitting of John Schommer.

In the afternoon the Armour nine met Elmhurst on the home diamond and succeeded in vanquishing the invaders.

On Wednesday evening the Orchestra and Glee Club presented the Annual Spring Concert to a capacity audience. The Interfraternity Sing, held as a part of the concert, was won by Pi Kappa Phi.

Introduction of the Medley Relay and the Tug-of-War into the Junior Week program proved a popular addition with the upperclassmen. With the entire student body witnessing the events, the Juniors again showed their versatility by taking firsts in both events. The twin victory by the Junior Class gave them firsts in the four events which they entered. It was rumored at the time that the Junior Marshals had planned Junior Week so as to take advantage of the talents of the Junior Class but this they vigorously denied.
