

inning, the second Elmhurst man walked on Kossuth's pitching, stole second, went to third on a wild throw, and finally scored upon an infield out. But the Armour boys retaliated when Al Lauchiskis put a ball over the right field fence, and then Beigler did the same thing, advancing Al to third. Then they put on the squeeze play, and Al scored on Kossuth's bunt. A strike out ended the inning. In the next inning the Techmen did the same thing all over again. In the last of the ninth, with a possible scoring threat in the making, the Armour boys pulled themselves together and ended the game by pulling off a beautiful double play, Wagner to Beigler to Omiecinski.

The Michigan Normal Hurons, who defeated the Techawks and Dan Delve, 6-2, with a ninth inning splurge of four runs in a home game, took the Tech nine, 7-2, in a return game at Ypsilanti. Lefty Delve, who had been doing some mighty fine pitching, held the Hurons to seven hits.

Led by the stellar four-hit pitching of Dollenmaier, the Techawks eked out a 7-6 victory in their next game. "Dolly", who crossed the plate in the seventh inning to score what turned out to be the winning run, kept the Foresters from scoring an earned run, fanned ten men, and kept the Lake Forest hits well scattered.

In the return game at Lake Forest, the Armour ball team finally supported Dan Delve, although he did not need much as he allowed only one hit which was a fluke double down the third base line. Both teams remained scoreless until the fifth when Joe Bartusek hit a homer.

This last victory of the season brought the season to a close, as the game with Northwestern was called off because of bad weather. The final standing was 6 wins and 7 losses, which, while it was not perfect by a long way, was better than could be expected from a team which had hardly any veterans to boast of. It developed that quite a few freshmen who had come out turned into very reliable material, which will probably be used with some success next season.
