for their first match on May 15, at Southmoor. The weather was cold and damp but the Engineers came through with a 12-0 victory.

May 16 found St. Viator's College and Armour battling at Southmoor. As on the two previous days, the weather was unfavorable and the course wet. St. Viator's however, proved an easy victim for the Tech team, losing to the Engineers by a 0-12 score. May 18 was cool and clear, and on this day Armour suffered its last defeat of the season to Loyola University at Southmoor. A close match throughout, the final score proved it to be a win for Loyola 10-8.

The Armour team journeyed to St. Viator's College for their second match with the school on May 22. The Engineers repeated their previous 12-0 victory. South Side Junior College and Armour met for their second match at Southmoor on May 24. Again Armour repeated by winning with a 6-12 score. A 14-4 victory against Wright Junior College at Big Oakes on May 25 closed a successful season for the Armour golfers.

The season, characterized by wet weather, ended as it began. The course on which the last match was played was the first nine holes played twice, as the second nine were submerged.
