

INTER-FRATERNITY ATHLETICS

The interfraternity ping-pong tournament was won by a well balanced team from the Delta Tau Delta house composed of Laise, Engelthaler, Davis, and Davidson. This team swept through the tournament without losing a match and outclassed all other competition on the campus. Pi Kappa Phi took second honors in the tournament.

The interfraternity track meet was swept by the team entered by Phi Pi Phi. The result of the meet was never in doubt as Phi Pi Phi stepped off to an early lead and was never seriously threatened. Pi Kappa Phi took second place and Delta Tau Delta third. The Phi Pi Phi relay team composed of Friede, Dunbar, Trzyna, and Lindeman ran away from all competitors to take the relay cup easily. The outstanding performance of the meet was turned in by Claire Dunbar who won five events for Phi Pi Phi.

Rho Delta Rho won the interfraternity baseball tournament with a well balanced and powerful team. The timely hitting behind the excellent pitching of Sam Taradash gave Rho Delta Rho their victory. The final game of the tournament was played between Rho Delta Rho and Phi Kappa Sigma as a feature of the Junior Week program.

A strong tennis team composed of Ward James, Bill Hamlin and John Morrison swept all competition before them to win for Pi Kappa Phi. The team was characterized by its ability to pull through in the pinches when the going was hard and nobody was able to upset it.

For the seventeenth straight year Phi Pi Phi successfully defended their interfraternity basketball title. They defeated Delta Tau Delta 28 to 13 in a contest which was marked by rough play. This is the fourth successive year that Phi Pi Phi and Delta Tau Delta have met in the finals of the basketball tournament and it seems to be becoming an annual event. Kubicka of Phi Pi Phi was the high point man of game with five baskets and a free throw for eleven points.

Behind the championship swimming of two freshmen, Dodge and Winblad, the Pi Kappa Phi swimming team ran away with the second annual Interfraternity Swimming Meet. The strong Pi Kappa Phi team took five out of seven firsts to clinch the meet. Triangle, whose relay team took a first the winners missed, aggregated enough points to take second place while Phi Kappa Sigma, last year's winners, took third honors.
