

Looks Like the A.I.E.E. Smoker Was a Good Party

PROGRAM

September	27	Election of President.
October	4	Business Meeting.
October	18	"Elements of the Super Heterodyne" by R. Colin.
October	25	A. I. E. E. Convention at Purdue.
November	1	Debate. "Resolved, That Utilities Should be Federally Owned." Affirmative: A. Goldsmith and P. Slugg. Negative: E. Costello and N. Disenhaus.
November	1	Fall Smoker at Triangle House.
November	15	Joint Meeting. "Reasons for Controlling Grain Sizes in Steel," by Dr. J. L. Burns of the Republic Steel Co.
December	6	"Long Distance Direct Current Power Transmission," by W. Gruca.
December	11	Inspection Trip to Power House of Sanitary District of Chicago at Lockport, Illinois.
January	24	"Engineering Work and the Law Course," by Mr. P. B. Woodworth, Patent Attorney.
February	14	"Employment," by Mr. W. C. Hall, of the Illinois Bell Telephone Company.
February	28	"Value of Membership in the A. I. E. E.," by Mr. Frank Innes, of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.
March	13	"An Electrical Detector for Explosive Atmospheres," by Mr. P. B. Woodworth, Patent Attorney.
March	27	"Electron Tubes in Industry," by Mr. E. H. Johntz, of The General Electric Co.
April	3	"Interesting Features Found in Indicating Instruments," by Mr. H. L. Olesen, of Weston Instrument Co.
April	17	"Electrical Control in Industry," by Mr. G. I. Wolff, of the Cutler Hammer Co.