

was one-two in the time of 3:38.2. The only victory of the meet for Armour was taken by Dodge, when he came from behind to take the 220 free style in 2:38 flat. The meet called for inter-collegiate rules which required the Armourites to swim further than their customary distances. The nine Tech tanksters enjoyed their two day stay at Green-castle, and hope they may make the trip next year.

Coming back in fine style, after the meet at DePauw, the team defeated North Central at Bartlet Pool by a score of 35-31. This made the second triumph over the school and the third victory of the season. To start things off with a bang Techmen took the medley with a time of 1:10.5; Winblad, Svagdis, and Downing swimming this event. Svagdis showed great form in traversing the 100 yards in the breast stroke when he flashed to the edge in the time of 1:15.2. With Anderson making his debut in the 220 yard free style, Dodge had to hump to keep in the lead. All of which he did and won this distance with a time of 2:39.0.

Although they put up a game fight, nevertheless, the Tech tankmen fell before the Kenosha Youth Foundation of Kenosha, Wisconsin, 45½-18½. The halves were brought about by a dead heat in the 160 yard relay, each team getting half of the points. This was the only dead heat for a first place swim this season. K.Y.F. is of the order of an athletic club similiar to the Lake Shore Athletic Club, so small wonder that the Techsters were outclassed by their expert opponents. Among the most outstanding events of the meet were the 100 yard breast and the 220 yard free style. Neward of the visitors butterflied the 100 yard course in 1:11.5, which is mighty good time for this event. In the 220 yard free style, Dodge turned in one of his best times when he finished a half stroke ahead of Knapp in 2:37.3. Gathering the only other first of the meet for Armour, Winblad negotiated the 100 yard backstroke in 1:19.5, with Blume taking third. Pettes, Blume, Anderson, and Winblad were the lads who swam the previously mentioned dead heat relay against Kenosha.
