As further token of her improvement, Armour's tank squad doused Loyola, 46 to 29; having been beaten by the North Siders earlier in the season, 35 to 29. It was wins in the 220 yard relay, the 40 yard free style, and 100 yard back stroke that proved to be the difference between this win and the earlier defeat.

With a chance to make the season even in regards to wins and loses, the squad was unable to do it, as they met the supermen from Kenosha for the final meet of the season. The K.Y.F. won easily, 51-13. Armour succeeded in getting only one first when Dodge won the 220 yard free style in 2:38.0. New pool records were set by Kenosha in the 100 yard breast stroke and the 120 yard medley relay.
