HISTORY

Sigma Alpha Mu Fraternity, the largest Jewish fraternity in the United States, was founded at the College of the City of New York on November 28, 1909. Its formation was brought about through the action of eight members of that college. Its ideals and high standards were quickly recognized by groups throughout the country, and twenty-eight years after its inception, Sigma Alpha Mu has grown until it now consists of thirty-eight loyal chapters.

Sigma Epsilon Chapter, located at Armour, was the twenty-third link of this chain. Prior to February 5, 1922, it was known as the Ohr Club, but, having petitioned the national group, and having been favorably received, was initiated on that date. The chapter at Armour is one belonging to the Midwest Province, and is actively associated with the chapters at Illinois, Purdue, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and Minnesota.
