

THE FROSH

Tatge
Talcott
Krupnik
Ther
Huxhold

Theodore Krupnick . . . . .	President
Robert Ther . . . . .	Vice-President
Richard Talcott . . . . .	Secretary-Treasurer
Earl Huxhold . . . . .	A. T. S. A. Representative
Robert Tatge . . . . .	Social Chairman

During the week of September the 12th the mighty campus of Armour Tech was opened as a haven for handsome, intelligent high school graduates. Armour was indeed an institution where merriment was the chief concern, and the fraternities were the benefactors of the novices who had wended their way to the intersection of Thirty-third and Federal Streets. Three hundred and thirty innocent individuals were fattened for one glorious week and were then hurriedly shown the slaughter when school