

1940

Relaxing—And not one is a Fire Protect!

The sobering influence proved to be a benefit during this school year. Studies were tackled with renewed vigor.

The Junior Formal was held March 11th at the Congress Casino. It proved to be the highlight of the year's social entertainment. In May the Class' second dance, the popular Informal, received widespread acclaim and climaxed the activities of Junior Week.

Our Junior year has slipped by. Soon an additional year at Armour will have passed. If the present attitude of the Class can be taken as a basis for prediction, there is little doubt that the Class will triumph in the years that are to follow.