Inability to hold down Maiman cost Armour a second defeat at the hands of Lake Forest, this time 54-45. Jumping away to an early lead, Armour was never headed as they downed the George Williams team 30-26. Unable to hold on to a four-point lead with but a minute to go for the gun, Armour was forced into an overtime period with Elmhurst, and went down in defeat, 31-37. Chicago Teacher's again proved to be meat as Armour polished them off, 34-29, with the aid of the three S's, Swanson, Scherer, and Sliwa. Traveling to Toledo for the first time, the team was swamped by De Sales, 35-51. The trip to Detroit was equally unsuccessful, with Detroit U on the long end of a 60-35 score. Unable to cope with the accurate long-shot scoring of Detroit Tech, the Techawks took it on the chin, 33-40. The final of the year had De Sales practically duplicating its victory over Armour, the score being 56-35.
