May 11 and 12 were busy days, with the Beloit Relays on the 11th, and the Wheaton-Elmhurst meet the next day. Armour's track representatives were nosed out of any placing positions, but managed to score a total of $13\frac{3}{4}$ points in the Relays. As noted before, the triangular meet the next day was a whitewash for Armour.

It was in the following week that Bradley went to its first defeat in eight years against an Armour squad. This was followed by the North Central Cardinal's win, walloping Armour, 99-32. The closing win over Loyola saw Clark take three firsts in the broad jump, javelin throw, and high jump, as Armour swept the discus throw with Vandekieft, Burman, and Stehman taking honors.
