220 yard free-style. Winblad won his fourth letter award in as many years as he piloted the team through its successful season, while Pettes held sway on the diving board. Huxhold, Hutchings, and Rademacher made a threesome for the medley that opponents found hard to beat. The opening meet with Loyola saw our tanksters fall away before a 46-20 score. The following meet with North Central also proved a heartbreaker, the Armourites losing 44-31. In the third meet the Techawks braved the ferocious tricks of winter to swim against DePauw at Greencastle, Indiana. Although the Armour mermen put up a strong battle, the DePauw squad, a more experienced team, managed to win, 49-35. In their next meet the tankers swam to an easy victory over the North Central Redbirds at Bartlett pool. The final tabulation being 48 points for the Armourites,
