The Armour Eye was founded at Armour Institute of Technology on December 16, 1936, by a number of students whose interests and abilities inclined toward the photographic field.

During the past year the club has completed an interesting series of lectures and demonstrations given by men prominent in their field. The lectures were given at monthly meetings, during the evening. Print competitions were held each month among the members and were criticized and judged by one of the lecturers.

An interesting and informative program of activities has been planned for the coming year. Through an increase in equipment and membership, plans are being formulated to have a greater variety of print competitions among the club members and competitions with other similar organizations.
