

Walker, Sec'y Treas.; Mays, Social Chairman; Mankus, A.T.S.A. Representative; Ther, President.

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

ganized unit of the school, ready to take up its position as an integral support of Armour.

The serious business of class elections, class dances, and active participation in Junior Week took on a new and important meaning. We are looking forward to the time when those around us will recognize our status and point with pride to the record built by the class of '42.

Second Row: McFarland, Zeleny, Krause, Martin, Herter, McAulay, Popp, Eger, Carey, Stone, Duckrow, Garnner. First Row: Jencius, Saperstein, Peterman, Eng, Skene, Sieg, Hansen, Bergstrom, DeGiorgi.

We're on our way. The first phase of our adventure is now a thing of the past. Those of us who had successfully hurdled the obstacles of the first year were back again for more punishment. And punishment we received.

It wasn't long before the mystic marvels of calculus and physics were unraveled before our very eyes by such well meaning persons as Messrs. Potter and Krathwohl. The January exams showed that these gentlemen had not labored in vain for by Gad, Gates—We can integrate!

Time has made us all closer friends. Strangely enough, we found time to become members of more than a score of organizations on the campus. The class of '42 was by now an or-