Beloit college was the next opponent of the wrestlers when they traveled to the Wisconsin school on February 24. Inability to win the bouts in the heavier weight divisions spelled doom for the matmen as they lost 16-14. After holding a 14-5 lead at the end of the first five matches, the Techawks dropped the last three to lose the meet. Again on the road, Weissman's boys stopped this time at Wheaton for the Wheaton Invitational. When all the groaning was over that afternoon of March 2, they returned home with a fifth place. Balsewick, fighting in the heavyweight division, was the only Techawk who thoroughly enjoyed the meet. Besides getting four of the five points that Armour managed to total, Balsewick defeated two of the men who had previously whipped him in dual meets. Wolniak added the other point when he gained third place in the 175 pound division.

In the final meet, Tech's matmen had little difficulty in crushing Augustana by the score of 35-5. The meet was held March 9 at the Rock Island school. Five of the eight bouts were won on falls in less than five minutes. DeMent, stripping off his managerial clothes and donning those of a grunt and groan artist, produced Augustana's only win and her five points.
