

Second Row: Bauch, James, Mueller, Krause, Carrier, Holle. First Row: Mankus, Achinakian, Grosse, Bay, Yursis, Coach Stenger.

solid smashes, one of them being a home-run. Leonard and Bauch also belted homers and Kruse contributed two singles to his own cause.

The DeKalb win provided the incentive for the Techawks to avenge the previous whipping by Lake Forest. With Kruse pitching another standout game, the Foresters bowed to the tune of 6-4. Michigan State's Spartans, however, invaded Ogden Field the same week and put a finale to Armour's season by scoring a 5-2 triumph.

Alex Yursis was on the mound in the final game as Berndt Lyckberg and Captain Willie Kruse performed their last chores upon the Armour diamond. With the graduation of Kruse the team and school lost an outstanding three-year pitcher and hitter.

In the 1940 season a complete team of lettermen returned to competition and Coach Grant Stenger was assured of a fine season with "Red" James and Al Yursis carrying the pitching load. Frank Leonard was elected captain for the '40 season. His fire and spirit have been leading factors in the success of the present Armour nine.