The indoor track season was opened at Naperville when Armour Tech met North Central, and a powerful Cardinal team conquered the Techawks, 62-29. Co-captain Cerovski took the Armour team honors with a victory in the 60 yard dash and second places in the 440 and 880. Burman won the shot put while Mongean was an easy first in the high jump. Much can be attributed to the fact that our team lost many of its high point winners of last season through graduation.

The meet with North Central was an omen of bad fortune in the treatment the Techawks were to receive from Loyola. Predictions came true when the Loyola squad led by Lenover decisively defeated Armour. Loyola had full control of the running events, and the Tech trackmen were greatly handicapped by the loss of Cerovski, who pulled a muscle
