shortly before the meet. In the field events the tables were turned, but not even firsts for Armour in the pole vault, high jump, and shot put could garner enough points for the Rootmen. Loyola won, 66-28.

The next meet was the third consecutive loss for Armour's track team as Wilson Jr. College won, 59-39. Mongean was high point man with first in the high jump, second in the shot put, and a tie for third in the pole vault. Cerovski was able to come back to win the 880, and Burman took shot put honors for the third straight time.

The team found itself in the meet with Elmhurst and the Techawks stepped out to win their first duel, 59-36. Cerovski led the team with firsts in the 440 and the 880. Jackowski took first in the mile and third in the two mile, while Barry won the low hurdles and finished third in the highs. Burman broke the meet record to win the shot put, Elwood won the pole vault, and Mongean tied for first in the high jump and third in the pole vault and shot put. Armour completely swept both the 440 yard dash and the pole vault.

After suffering three defeats, the team showed signs of promise that, if development followed as well in the next few meets as it did in the Elmhurst meet, the Techawks could turn in as good a season as the team of '39, if not better.
