

crown. In the same room Alpha Sig missed its 21st basketball crown by two points as it fell before a determined Phi Kap five in an 18-16 overtime battle. This was the second interfraternity crown for the men from Skull house.

During the long winter months intramural manager Opila kept the athletic ball rolling with a bowling and a ping pong tournament. Intermingled in this was an interclass track meet, and a boxing and wrestling tournament. The track meet saw ten juniors gather enough points to win the second trophy for the class of 1941. High point man of the meet was Heidenreich, who ran, jumped, and vaulted his way to $14\frac{1}{2}$ points of the winner's $39\frac{1}{2}$ points.
