

The annual Open House dance was held for the first time in the new Student Union, resulting in a jammed dance floor, but a swell time.

Baseball history was made Thursday morning when the Junior class "Yankees" overcame a six run lead to whip the Seniors. The hosts then went on to wallop the Sophomores, 8-2, taking the championship. The crushed Seniors went out that afternoon and were slaughtered by the faculty "butchers" who became so-o-o tired hitting homers.

The pie eating contest was handicapped by "culprits" who stole most of the pies, but Bob Jaffee finally "out-ate" all others.

Junior Week