graduate student dwelling

illinois institute of technology

site plan

level one

levels two-three

level four

levels five-thirteen

room types per typical level
a = 4
b = 4
c = 5

31st street

state street

michigan avenue

cta green line

north elevation

east elevation

concrete

glass infill

expanded metal mesh

social interaction and the relationships made during a student's education are complementary to the college experience. social spaces on each level encourage interface between the residents. group and individual study spaces are also provided to allow for a comfortable live/work environment.

section looking north

a new fitness center will serve as an incentive amenity for living on campus. this will allow for the existing athletics facility, keating hall, to be devoted to iit athletes.