

Mix-use Multi-Generational Housing in China

and retrofit subsidized housing area with neighborhood facilities and open space

The project

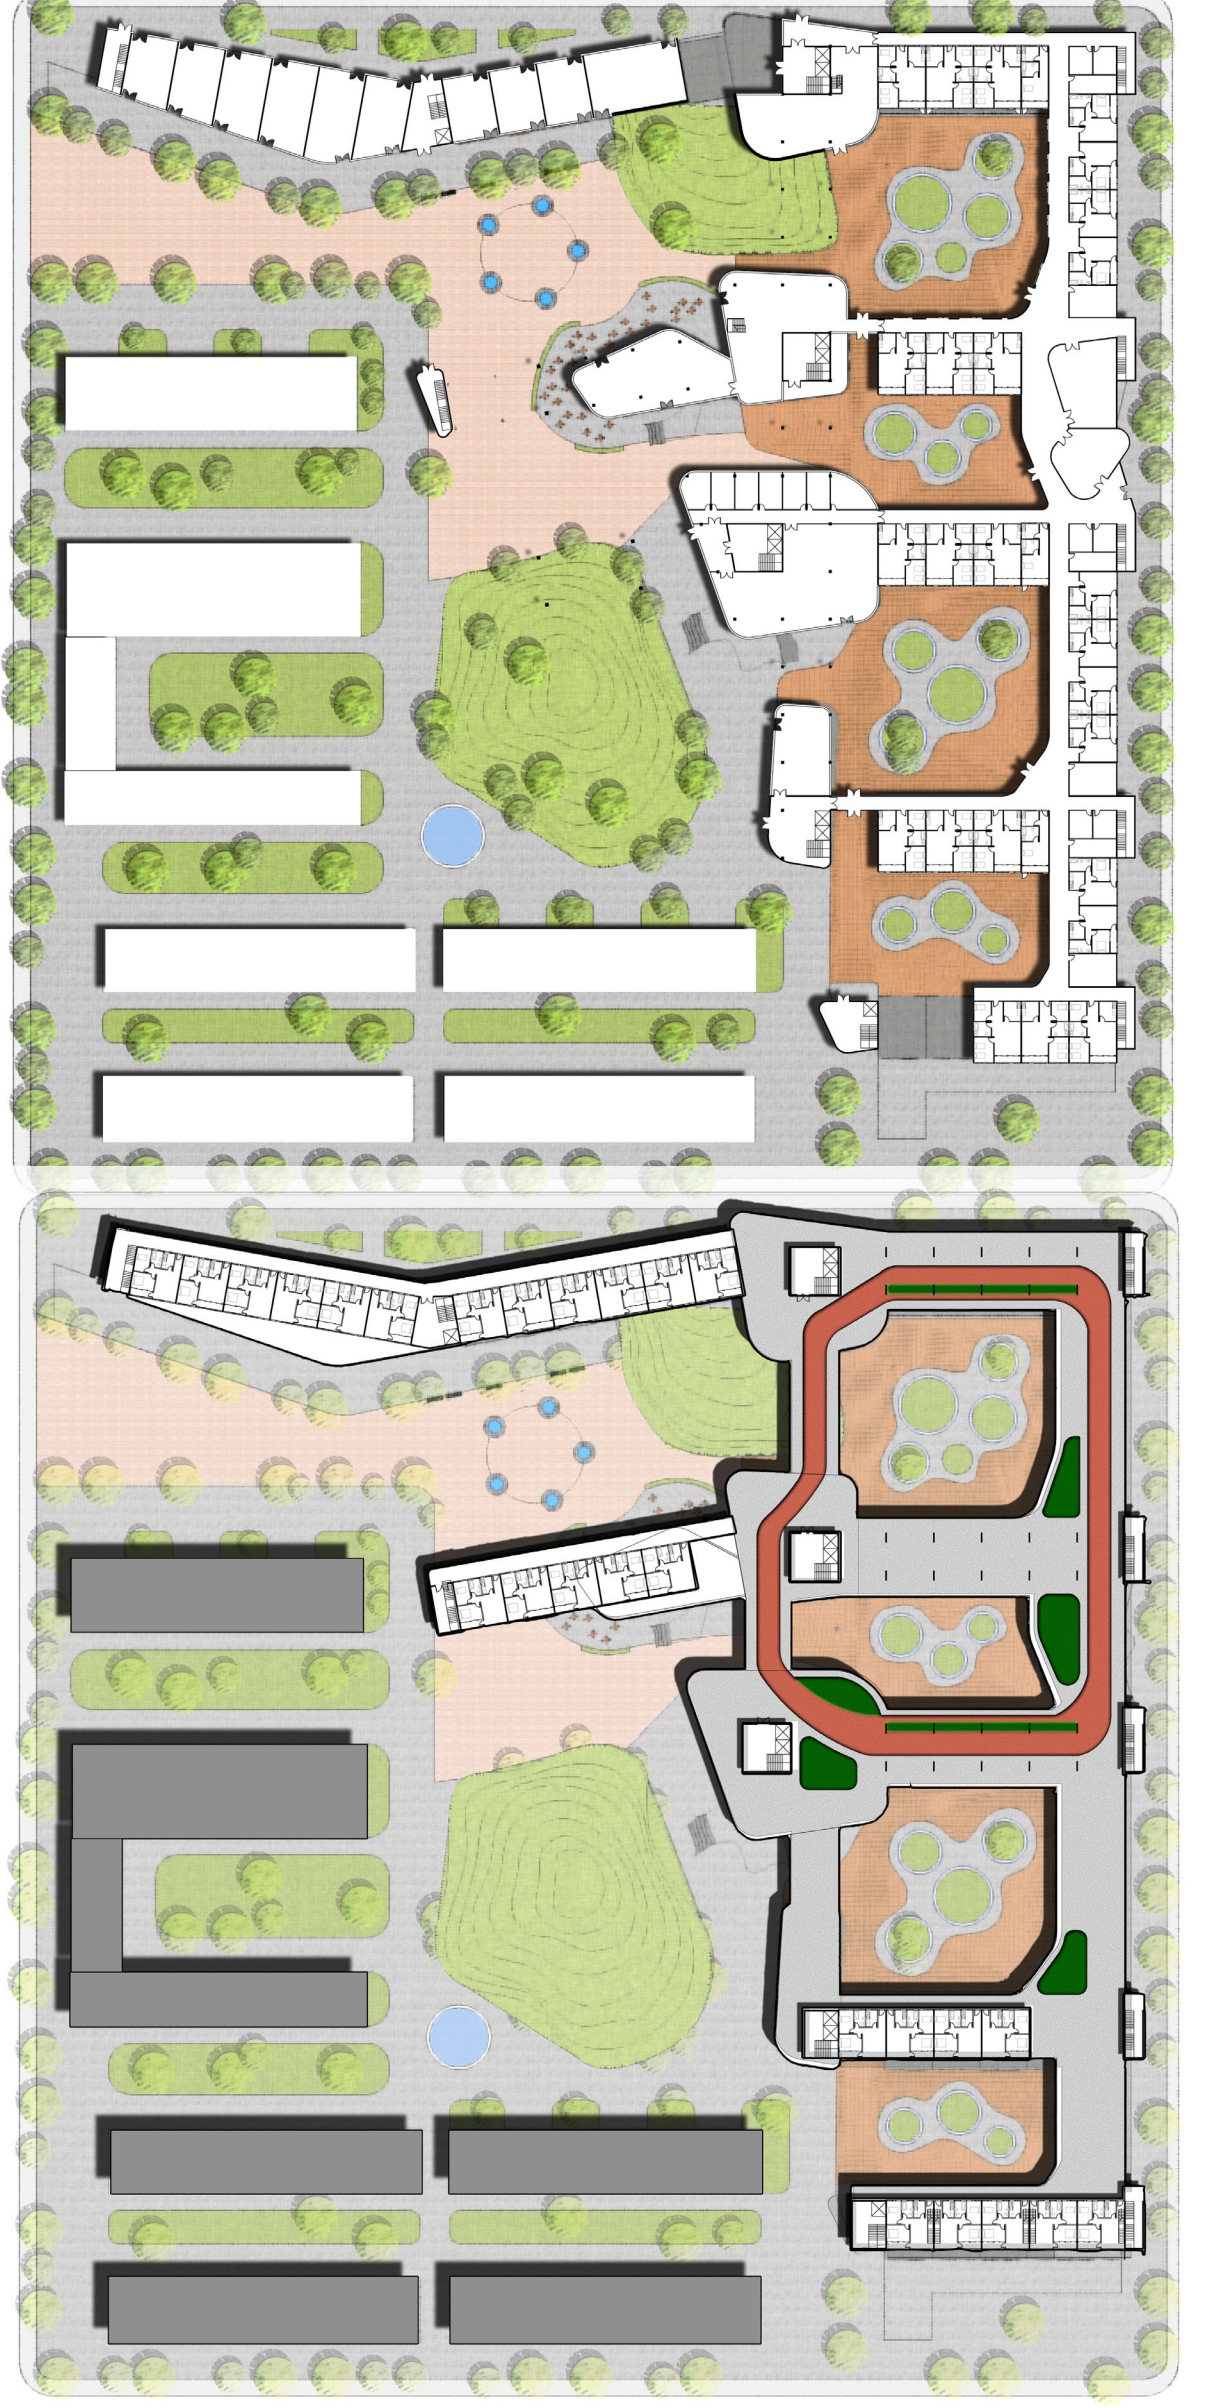

is

concept

A common scenario:		Problems for the families:	A Humanistic Response:
4 Wang's Family: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Wang worked for a shoe factory; his wife was a nurse. They both retired.</li></ul> 2 Xiao Wang &amp; Xiao Li's family: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Xiao Wang works for government;</li><li>Xiao Li is a elementary teacher.</li></ul> 1 Their daughter: Xiao Hua		Li's Family: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Wang was a chef in a small restaurant; his wife was a retail seller. They both retired.</li><li>Li's wife is in wheelchair because a surgery years ago. However, their apartment is not accessible, so she can barely go out.</li></ul> Wang's son: Xiao Wang Li's daughter: Xiao Li Xiao Hua	Too much population causes early retire age, one child policy, extremely housing pressure, too little land for open space, little or no public facilities. Also, it causes the lost of many long tradition. The losing of multi-generational living is just one of them. This project is a humanistic architectural response to the social problems.

Solution:
A multi-generational housing has been recently developed in Wang's neighbourhood. Xiao Wang &amp; Xiao Li moves into the apartment. Wang's wife who used to be a nurse volunteer working for the elderly apartment. She is happy that she can help others again. Also, she can see her grand-daughter everyday! Wang goes to the game room, playing chess and Pingpong with his old friends everyday! Xiao Hua goes to the day care center. She is so happy that her friends and she finally have a place outside to play the "chasing" game. Li and his wife moves into the elderly apartment. It is on the ground floor and accessible. They rent out their old apartment, using the money pay for the elderly apartment. Li's wife enjoys so much doing gardening in the courtyard.

facade

plans

