

In this IPRO 317 ever everyone was confused what they were doing. The reason was the sponsor of the project kept visiting us in almost every other class. On his visits he didn't stop telling us what to do, and everyone was confused if this was an IPRO or what. Otherwise I learned how to cooperate in different engineering groups. Everybody in IPRO 317 was cooperating very well.